

The Neuenschwander Company provides the following consulting services for acute care hospital pharmacies:

1. Help pharmacies identify the right blend of drug distribution and dispensing paradigms and products for the setting
 - a. Centralized
 - b. Decentralized
 - c. Hybrid
 - d. Workflow evaluation
 - e. Workforce evaluation
 - f. Workspace evaluation
2. Assist pharmacies with bar-code readiness and maintenance plans
 - a. Hardware/software evaluation and selection
 - b. Process/workflow assessment and evaluation
 - c. Procurement
 - d. Packaging
 - e. Labeling
 - f. Drug formulary cleanup and readiness
 - g. Cross-reference drug-file development and maintenance
3. Prepare pharmacies for automation/technology support roles with nursing and IT
 - a. Labor assessment
 - b. Training
 - c. Support development
 - i. Initial
 - ii. Continual
4. Guide pharmacy through clean-up (standardization/simplification) of their drug dictionaries (formularies) required for integrating technologies
5. Help with selection and implementation of medication-order-management systems
6. Prepare pharmacies for their role with smart infusion pumps
 - a. Pump selection
 - b. Dictionary/formulary development
 - c. Reports and analytics
 - d. Ongoing support
 - e. Handling Integration with BCMA
7. Prepare pharmacies for supporting bar coding at other points of care
 - a. Hardware/software evaluation and selection
 - b. Process/workflow assessment and evaluation
8. Provide hospitals assistance for in selection of point of care support products
 - a. Computing devices
 - b. Scanning equipment
 - c. Transport systems
9. Help hospitals select and implement the appropriate IV-preparation automation in the pharmacy
 - a. Hardware/software evaluation and selection
 - b. Process and workflow development
 - c. Analysis of existing process and workflow
10. Assist hospitals with medication-use technology report development and analytics
11. Assist in development of policies and procedures around applicable technology and automation